Century Cocktails

Enjoy these cocktails representing some of the the whisky regions of Scotland. Each is built around a single malt whisky from there and aims to represent the feel of that region.

HIGHLAND - the largest and most diverse region with a full spectrum of styles. Based down the road in Blackford, this uses Tullibardine - our closest distillery.

Blackford £16

The sweet and nutty malt is balanced with a herbal spiciness

Tullibardine 225, vermouth, Green Chartreuse, Kummel, Angostura & orange bitters

LOWLAND - traditionally home to a light, grassy style with a characteristic triple distillation. Nowadays, it is the home of the blend with large quantities of grain whisky being distilled here.

The Great Wave £18

Light, fresh highball to quench your thirst

Auchentoshan Three Wood, pomegranate, mint, soda

ISLAY - this island off the west coast is known for powerful whiskies characterised by the influence of peat smoke

La Gav £22

French Martini twist - the fruitiness gently tames the robust whisky

Lagavulin 16yr, raspberry, pineapple

SPEYSIDE - the highest concentration of distilleries are in this north eastern corner of Scotland. They range from light and fruity to rich and sherried.

Brigadoon £18

Fruity, rich and delicious.

A great summer drink

Inchgower 14yr, lemon, apricot, orgeat, mint

Blood & Berries £14

Dark with a smoky backbone

Tequila, mezcal, vermouth, orange, blackberry

Champagne Charlie £21

So many layers of flavour

Gin, spiced apple aperitif blend, bitters, champagne

Cloths of Heaven £18

Long and zesty, a great alternative to a Gin and Tonic
